Warren Barguil at home

The breton team will be one of the most awaited formations on Bretagne Classic - Ouest-France where it will have for 250 kilometers a public acquired to its cause. Coming with a solid workforce, Emmanuel Hubert’s group should lead the race to its very last kilometers.

In the Arkéa - Samsic team, Warren Barguil will of course be the most awaited rider by the breton public. The French Champion, residing at 20 km from Plouay, will evolve on his training routes and in front of all his supporters. The Morbihannais has never had the opportunity to race the Bretagne Classic - Ouest-France, but he has already raced the Grand Prix of Plouay in 2015.

Since she reached the ProContinental level in 2011, the breton team has been at Plouay every year, where she is consistently in the breakaway. This will still be the case on the fourth edition of Bretagne Classic where the teammates of Warren Barguil should animate the race and protect their leader. On his field, "Wawa" will enjoy the course to have fun and try to win at home.

To support its riders, Arkéa - Samsic appealed to Roger Tréhin, a local sports director who already raced Plouay in 1989.
Warren Barguil is the leader

Arkéa - Samsic presented its first riders list scheduled in Plouay under the direction of the sports director Roger Tréhin.

181. Warren Barguil (Fra, 27). Champion of France, the local of the day will also be the most awaited rider by the public. On his training routes, the popular morbihannais will arrive for the first time in Plouay in the role of a protected leader who will be considered as one of the favorites of the day. Warren Barguil winner in Plouay as French Champion, it would be a highlight that would remain in the history of breton cycling.

182. Anthony Delaplace (Fra, 29). Highly successful in Plouay where he was 22nd and 18th of the first two editions of the Bretagne Classic, the Normand will be one of the best equipped riders to support Warren Barguil.

183. Romain Le Roux (Fra, 27). The Brestois will discover the Brittany Classic, he will be there to help Warren Barguil or to appear in the breakaway.

184. Alan Riou (Fra, 22). The neo-professional breton will discover the Bretagne Classic. It will be a great moment for this young rider learning the world top level in cycling.

185. Laurent Pichon (Fra, 33). Another local runner, winner of the Grand Prix Plouay amateur in 2009 he will be an ideal teammate for its leaders. We could also find it in the breakaway.

186. Clement Russo (Fra, 24). Coming from cyclo-cross, he will appreciate the gravel roads of Roudouallec. Full rider, he can be one of the revelations of the day for his second participation in the breton classic.

187. Florian Vachon (Fra, 34). Seventh participation at Plouay for the oldest rider of the breton team. An experienced teammate, he will also be there to support Warren Barguil.

The announced substitutes are Benoit Jarrier (Fra), Kevin Ledanois (Fra), Connor Swift (Gbr) and Bram Welten (Ned).