

31st august 2019

Bretagne Classic 2019 / Newsletter n°30

GrandPrixPlouay

Charente
Maritime
Women Cycling

A team to discover

The french team will present one of the youngest teams at the start of the Grand Prix de Plouay - Lorient Agglomération - WNT Women Trophy. For all its members, it will be to discover the biggest race in Brittany and go as far as possible.

For the Charente Maritime Women Cycling team, the Plouay Grand Prix - Lorient Agglomération - WNT Women Trophy will be above all a great opportunity to compete in one of the world's biggest races not far from its headquarters. For all the runners involved, it will be the first participation on the biggest race in Brittany.

In such a context, for the team with an average age of 20 years, the sporting ambition will be only to learn from the world's best and to go as far as possible in a race deemed very difficult. Coached by the Breton Gaël Le Bellec, the members of this team will be well advised. For all, it will also be a beautiful day to live without particular pressure.

A young team

Charente Maritime Women Cycling presented its first rider list scheduled at Plouay under the direction of Gaël Le Bellec.

201. Lucie Lahaye (Fra, 21). Although young, she already has a great experience of high-level women's cycling. She will want to finish the race as she did in July on La Course by Le Tour de France.

202. Noémie Abgrall (Fra, 19). The young breton will evolve on her land. Good climber, she will try to hang on as long as possible to the pack of leaders.

203. Anna Gabrielle Traxler (Can, 21). Arrived in June in the team, the young Canadian knows Brittany for having already played the Tour of Belle Isle en Terre - Kreiz Breizh Elites in 2018.

204. Iris Sachet (Fra, 25). The most experienced of the team has already played all other UCI races in Brittany. Recent 7th stage on the Tour of Belle Isle en Terre - Kreiz Breizh Elites, she will perhaps be the best placed of her team.

205. India Grangier (Fra, 19). The youngest member of the team continues her high level apprenticeship, she will be there to discover her first race of the WorldTour calendar.

206. Anaïs Morichon (Fra, 19 ans). Like her young teammates, the french continues her high level apprenticeship.

The announced substitutes are Gladys Verhulst (Fra) and Pauline Allin (Fra).

