

31st august 2019

Bretagne Classic 2019 / Newsletter n°40

GrandPrixPlouay

A nice team

New team of the Women's WorldTour, the Polish squad is already 4th in the team ranking. For its first Grand Prix de Plouay - Lorient Agglomération - Trophy WNT Women, it will present a strong workforce that will compete with the best in the world.

For its first Grand Prix de Plouay, the CCC - Liv team will be prived of its charismatic leader Marianne Vos. In her absence, Ashleigh Moolman and Pauliena Rooijackers will take the roles of captains in a team that should be able to compete with the best formations of WorldTour. It will be mainly to hang on to the pack of favorites.

All of CCC's competitors - Liv has seventeen participations in Plouay. Ashleigh Moolman is a regular in the Plouaysian race, she was already 4th in 2015 and 8th in 2018. With her team, she will aim this time the podium.

Ashleigh Moolman as leader

CCC - Liv has presented its first rider list at Plouay under the direction of athletic director Eric Van den Boom.

41. Ashleigh Moolman (Rsa, 33). Present on the last nine editions of the Grand Prix de Plouay, the South African ranked six times in the top twenty and twice in the Top 10 (4th in 2015 and 8th in 2018). 17th in the world ranking, she will be the protected leader of her team. 5th in the race by The Tour de France, 6th of the Strade Bianche, 7th of the Flèche Wallonne, she will be there to compete with the best.

42. Valérie Demey (Bel, 25). Accustomed to the WorldTour races, the Belgian will live her second Grand Prix de Plouay as a precious teammate.

43. Inge Van Der Heijden (Ned, 20). The cyclo-cross U23 world champion continues her apprenticeship at the highest level on the road. Recent 12th of the Classica San Sebastian, she is in full progression and will live her second Grand Prix de Plouay.

44. Pauliena Rooijackers (Ned, 26). Recent 3rd of the Classica San Sebastian, the Dutch will be able to accompany the best for a long time. She will be a valuable support for her leader.

45.

46.

